

EDITORIAL

'Business Africa'

the weekly magazine of the African and International Economy

#BusinessAfrica

Thursday at 20h15 WAT (UTC+1)

For the very latest updates in Business and Finance in Africa and the rest of the world, Business Africa is your reliable weekly program by Africanews aired every Thursday.

Africanews is an independent, multilingual pan-African media that presents the new face of information for a continent on the move.

A land of opportunity: Africanews, through Business Africa, is promoting the potentialities of an economy in full bloom with the objective of presenting the continent's most promising assets.

As an African look at the global economy, Business Africa highlights the major events that affect the African and world economic sphere.

On Business Africa, the editorial team speaks to game changers turning things around on the continent.

The host Afolake Oyinloye and her team also reports on talented entrepreneurs and experts to set the agenda for discussion on the economic stakes of the various African countries.

Business Africa also provides the latest news on stock market figures.

Business Africa

Broadcast: thursday 20h15 WAT (TU/GMT+1)

Duration: 8', and rebroadcast until Sunday evening

www.africanews.com/programmes/business-africa/

#BusinessAfrica

@africanews

A propos d'Afolake Oyinloye

@afolakeg

Nigerian journalist Afolake Oyinloye is an expert commentator on 'The Morning Call's Travel segment.

As a journalist and camerawoman, she has covered legislative and presidential elections in Guinea-Conakry and Nigeria respectively. She has single-handedly produce documentaries and reports in various countries such as China, Hong Kong, The United Arab Emirates, France, Ghana, Benin, Ivory Coast, Togo and Senegal. Prior to joining Africanews, Afolake worked for Slate Africa in Paris, France 24, Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and Africa 24 TV.

She has a Master's degree in journalism and graduated from L' Institut Supérieur des Métiers de l' Audiovisuel in the Republic of Benin.

About Africanews

Africanews, launched in 2016 (digital in January, TV in April), stands out as the first pan-African multilingual media source produced simultaneously in French and English, and offering coverage of African and global news from a sub-Saharan perspective.

Today, Africanews TV is available in 35 countries across sub-Saharan Africa thanks to major pay-tv players and national channels (partial broadcast). The Africanews signal covers sub-Saharan Africa and the Indian Ocean islands via two satellites: SES 4 and SES 5.

Africanews' digital platforms, available around the world, highlight the challenges and opportunities of a connected Africa:

- africanews.com has a responsive web design suited to all mobile, tablet and computer screens and has the added feature of adapting to the quality of the available connection;
- two YouTube channels (in English and French) and Facebook and Twitter accounts @africanews and @africanewsfr.

Africanews is a 100% Euronews subsidiary financed through advertising and distribution. Africanews adheres to the same editorial charter as its European sister channel, Euronews.

Follow us on Twitter @africanews

For further information, please contact:

Press office

Solange Boding Chauwin

Chargée de communication

t + 242 06 460 8698

solange.boding-chauwin@africanews.com

Editorial

François Chignac

Director of Editorial development

t +242 06 996 00 88

francois.chignac@africanews.com

Euronews Group press office: Lydie Bonvallet t+33 (0)4 28 67 05 35 lydie.bonvallet@euronews.com @euronews_group

